

STARKVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT
CITIZEN COMPLAINT PROCEDURE AND FORM

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF OF POLICE

The Starkville Police Department is committed to creating and maintaining a safe, secure, and enjoyable environment for community members and visitors alike. We strive to provide fair, courteous, responsive, and effective service equally to all people while observing each individual's dignity and worth.

Therefore, it is the policy of the Starkville Police Department to accept and thoroughly investigate all complaints of alleged misconduct by any member of the department. The complaint process has two goals: To correct improper employee conduct and to protect employees from unwarranted criticism when their actions were lawful and justified.

The packet will provide you with the necessary information you will need to file a personnel complaint with the department. You can be assured that your complaint will be given our full and complete attention.

Should you have any questions about your complaint or the complaint process you are encouraged to contact the Internal Affairs Officer at 662-323-4134.

CITIZEN COMPLAINT PROCEDURE AND FORM

The complaint form, which is the last page of this packet, should be used to file your complaint. You can attach as many additional pages as you need, along with any supporting evidence you might have. A copy of your complaint will either be given to you at the time you file the complaint or by the Internal Affairs Officer. After you complete the complaint form, sign and bring it directly to the Police Department.

SUMMARY OF COMPLAINT PROCESS

After your complaint has been filed, it is assigned to be investigated. All available witnesses will be contacted, and any physical or other relevant evidence including records, reports, recordings and computer data will be collected and reviewed. You will be personally contacted by the Internal Affairs Officer for an interview.

The completed investigation report is sent to the accused employee's manager for review and recommendation. The final disposition on the case will be made by the Chief of Police. When a complaint is sustained, the Chief will determine and administer appropriate corrective and/or disciplinary action up to, and including, termination.

After the investigation has been completed and the Chief has made a final decision on the case, you will be notified of the results by the Internal Affairs Officer.

If the employee receives disciplinary action as a result of your complaint, they have a right to appeal.

CITIZEN COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

HOW DO I FILE A COMPLAINT?

We would prefer to talk with you about your complaint in person; however, complaints will be accepted by telephone. Concerns can often be addressed to the complaining party's satisfaction without requiring a formal complaint. You can contact the on-duty supervisor at 662-323-4134 to initiate or inquire about filing a complaint.

WHO CAN MAKE A COMPLAINT?

Anyone can file a complaint, if they truly and honestly believe a police employee has acted improperly.

WHO INVESTIGATES A CITIZEN'S COMPLAINT?

Complaints of alleged misconduct are typically investigated by the Internal Affairs Officer. Their investigation is reviewed by the manager of the involved employee and the Chief of Police.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO THE EMPLOYEE?

That will depend on the results of the investigation. If the employee is found to be at fault, the complaint will be SUSTAINED and the appropriate corrective and/or disciplinary action will be taken. If certain points of the allegation(s) were found to be sustained, while others were determined to not be sustained, unfounded or the actions of the employee were exonerated by the evidence obtained the complaint will be PARTIALLY SUSTAINED. If they acted properly, they will be EXONERATED. If the facts show that the complaint is false, the complaint will be UNFOUNDED. In those cases where the department is unable to determine the validity of the complaint and cannot arrive at any other conclusions, the complaint will be NOT SUSTAINED. If the investigation concludes that the involved employee's conduct was not misconduct but rather an issue of department service procedure, the department may revise the applicable policy or procedure.

WHAT IS MY COMPLAINT INVOLVES CRIMINAL BEHAVIOR?

The District Attorney's Office may be consulted on any complaint that alleges criminal conduct on the part of any employee. The District Attorney's Office may conduct an independent criminal investigation while the internal investigation is pending.

WILL I BE TOLD OF THE RESULTS OF THE INVESTIGATION?

YES – At the conclusion of the investigation and review by the Chief of Police, you will be notified of the results by mail as required by law. Due to legal restriction, you will only be given the finding of the investigation of whether your complaint was SUSTAINED, PARTIALLY SUSTAINED, UNFOUNDED, EXONERATED, NOT SUSTAINED, or is one of SERVICE OR PROCEDURE. The department is prohibited by law from revealing specific personnel actions taken against an employee.
